Let's make a plan

1. Read and say what you will do tomorrow.

Tomorrow is Olympics Day! It will be a great day!

LOOK!
Use will to express intentions
we'll = we will
I'll = I will won't = will not

We'll play games all day long!
We'll meet children from other schools.
We'll win awards.

There will be music, fun games, and great food.

And we won't have any classes.

LOOK!

Use might to express probable consequences
'might' = will possibly happen.

2. Sing along!

I'll run. I'll jump.
I'll do my best.
I'll fight. I'll kick.
I'll find my way.

I might win. I might lose.
I might never make it right,
but I don't mind
because I will surely have fun.

3. Match

1. We will go to the mall.
2. I will buy a pet.
3. We will go camping.
4. I will go to a restaurant.
5. I will go to a costume party.

- a. We might swim in a lake. 3 - a
- b. I might order a hamburger.
- c. We might go to the movies.
- d. I might go as a witch.
- e. I might get a cat.

Sounds and Rhythm

We'll run. We'll jump. We'll do our best.
We might be few and we might be new
but we are the best that you ever knew.

Olympics day at school

1. Listen, read and guess what they will play on Olympics Day.

Helen: Tomorrow is our day! Our class is going to win this cup!

Philip: Yeah! We have the fastest runners and the best sports teams.

Mark: And we'll also get points for organization.

Helen: Let's sort out this equipment.

Philip: I'll put up the banners.

Mark: I'll get the ropes.

Patty: I'll check the music.

Helen: I'll prepare the games.

Joseph: Hey guys! I have some news for you! Tailor School is coming to our Olympics Day.

Mark: Oops! They have the best basketball team.

Philip: Yeah! And they won the Olympics last year.

Helen: Anyway, they might win the basketball games but we have the fastest runners. We'll see how it goes...

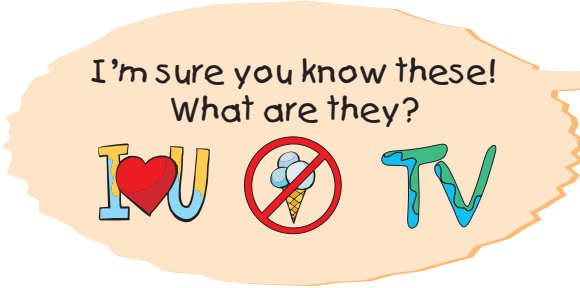

Patty: Well...we'll surely have a great competition.

The Riddle Club

I look at you, you look at me.
I raise my right, you raise your left.
What is this object?

One in all, all in one, can you say
which one you like?

We will create our own language.
We will communicate with signs

with riddles
with codes

Leave a coded message if you want to join us. We'll find you.

Leave a coded message if you
want to join us. We'll find you.

Wed & Fri-break time.
We'll meet where the rainbow
meets the sky.

Fun reading

Silly rhymes

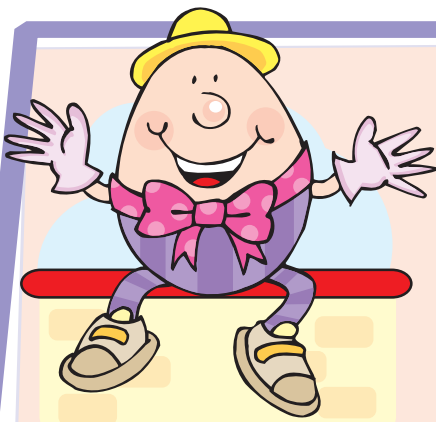

Read and say what might happen.

Mary has a little lamb;
its fleece is white as snow,
and everywhere that Mary goes,
the lamb is sure to go.
He followed her to school one day,
which is against the rule.
It made the children laugh and play
to see a lamb at school.

What might happen to the lamb?

Humpty Dumpty is a big egg.
He sits on a wall and moves his legs.
Be careful Humpty, don't be a fool!
To get down, you'll need a stool!

What might happen to Humpty Dumpty?

What might happen to Little Boy Blue and his sheep?

Little Boy Blue takes care of the sheep.
Unfortunately, he fell asleep.
All the crazy sheep went running to town
to see all the stores and ride
the merry-go-round!
